WORKSHOP ON DRAMA EDUCATION

During the Greek mobility (1-5/10/24) participants took part in workshops conducted by the UN Refugee Agency, in a workshop by the Greek school mediation team (focused on bullying and strategies for addressing it). Also, in the workshop with the title: "Theatre of The Real," and an anti-bullying drama lesson" led by theater director and educator Filippos Zarfeiadis. During these experiential workshops, the participants, applying various drama education techniques such as frozen images, mirroring others, and role-playing as both the bully and the victim, approached the issue of school bullying while learning new educational tools.
